LOCALES.

We have heard of no sickness among the returned refugees.

For the first time in many years our county jail contains not a single, solitary inmate. Panicky and pinching times seem to have a moralizing effect upon people.

John Rees, the Fourth ward baker, has built a new oven, of increased capacity, and is now better than ever before prepared to accommodate his growing business.

Squire Shannessy was still alive yesterday evening; but it is impossible that the old gentleman can survive much longer. His death may be looked for at any moment.

A colored woman named Belle Hamilton was before Justice Comings yesterday, Letitia Green charging to her account the theft of a "wipe." The charge was not sustained, and Belle was acquitted.

Such of our railroad officials as left the city to visit respected relatives abroad, or in response to pressing business calls, or for some other cause are, with all their clerks and assistants, at their posts again refreshed and rejuvenated by their respite, and ready for the large winter business upon which they are entering. The preparations for business are complete, and if indications do not mislead, an active and prosperous season may be relied upon.

John Riley indulged in a plain drunk, yesterday, and was fined, therefore, two dollars and the inevitable accompaniments. Having no money he was consigned to the care of Mahoney for a term of five days.

Vote for Allen, for Harman, Halliday and Robinson. They are all nominees of the Democratic party, for whose success the people of Cairo and Alexander county should feel an especial concern.

Charles Allen was taken before Judge Bird, yesterday, on the compound charge of disorderly conduct, and carrying concealed weapons. Being found guilty he was fined $32 and costs, and calaboused for 35 days.

The election of Judge Allen will drive the "bloody shirt" and personal vilification out of the political arena, in the 19th congressional district. His election will be a just rebuke to that mode of electioneering.

It is said that over forty thousand tickets have been provided for the use of the voters of Alexander county to-day. With this supply, nineteen tickets will be wasted for every one that goes into the ballot box.

The deaths yesterday, were that of Mr. Stanton and a colored woman named Stokes, living in the 4th ward, and a little daughter of Mr. Anthony, resident of the 2nd ward. The negro woman had been sick over two weeks, and did not die of the fever.

The Baked Beans and Coddish festival in Boston, and the Turnip-greens and Hog Jowl matinee in Syracuse, have proved such effective means for raising funds for the churches that we suggest the adoption of the idea in Cairo. Mackerel or sardine would be a "taking card," almost anywhere.

There was a rumpus among the deck hands of the steamer Henry Frank, yesterday, during which a negro man received several severe thumps over the scone and countenance. Warrants were issued, but a diligent search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the offenders.

The "special tax" which the voters of Alexander county are called upon to vote "for" or "against" to-day, will be applied, if levied, to the construction of a good county road. Everybody in Cairo, who would draw to our market the trade of the country around us should vote "for the Special Tax."

John Curley got drunk, and being drunk he became disorderly. Being taken before Judge Bird the damaging charge against him was proven, and the Judge thought the insulted majesty of the law required a solace of seven dollars. Curley being impecunious consented to pay the amount by a stay of ten days with Mahoney.

Under the minority representation system you can cast three votes for one of the candidates for representative, or one vote for three of them; or one and a half for two of them. Votes cannot be divided into a smaller fraction than a half. Democrats throughout the district should give Halliday and Robinson one and a half votes, each.

We were mistaken in fixing the place of Mr. Nelly's burial in the cemetery of the Lotus. As the matter seems to be one of consequence with some folks, we now take occasion to say that the remains found sepulture outside the Mississippi levee, where rest the bodies of the lamented Phil Howard, and other victims of the terrible scourge that "called and took few denials."

Democratic challengers—men who know the duties of a challenger, and will not fail to discharge them—should be at all the polls to-day. It is now known that at least one hundred strangers are quartered in the city, and that it is the aim of the Republican managers to vote them for Thomas. Especially should the quota contributed by the steamers Laura Lee and Henry Frank be watched narrowly.

Charles McKinney and James Hardin are of that class of people who live by their wits. It not being apparent to our police force that Messrs. McKinney and Hardin were earning an honest livelihood, they were "pulled" before his honor, Judge Bird. The evidence lodged against them rendering them subject to a severe application of the "rag act," they were fined $100 each, and given a short stay of execution that they might leave the city.

Brother Houpt informed the editor of the Carbonade Free Press that he will make such inroads into the Republican and Democratic vote of Alexander county, as will enable him to distance Halliday and Robinson, and leave the county second only to Layman. Houpt is a clever, companionable old fellow, but old as he is he has not lived long enough to properly read the temper of the people. The returns he will receive Wednesday morning will fill him with utter astonishment at the people's want of appreciation.

It was reported to us that four new cases of fever were developed yesterday, and that three or four of the older cases were still under treatment. As we have before remarked, it seems to be the accepted opinion that among those who carry the germs in their system, cases will continue to occur, occasionally, for a period of about two weeks, dating from the heavy frost and freeze of Saturday night a week ago.

In other words, the freeze was fatal to the germs in the atmosphere, but not to those that lurked in the human system.

Mr. H. R. Milburn, formerly of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad, of this city, has been stationed at Charleston, Missouri. Mr. M. was justly considered one of the most efficient men connected with the railroad service in this city.

The several railroad companies interested in the "White Line," have increased their facilities for moving through freights to an extent that will not fail to accommodate all demands that will arise during the coming winter. The Cairo and Vincennes has added fifty cars to its quota.

The old Baumgard rookery, at the corner of 17th and Poplar, is a nuisance that ought to be abated. It is filthy and dilapidated—gives out unwholesome smells, and is liable at any moment to tumble down upon its inmates. If it can't be renovated and repaired it ought to be demolished.

Still they come and go. To-day we strike the names of six of our old friends from our subscription list and add but five new ones. The new ones are welcome. The old ones, some of them have stood by us for years and we part with regret. They assured us that it is not because they love THE BULLETIN less, but because times are hard and money scarcer. One other stops until winter comes. May it soon be here.

Among the recent deaths in this city was that of a Dane, named Leon Peterson. He was a cripple, a quiet unobtrusive man, but a person of varied information and more than ordinary culture. No man in Southern Illinois was more thoroughly familiar with the modern history of Europe. Many years ago, while rounding Cape Horn, his feet were frozen, so that locomotion, with him, was quite difficult. He died on Friday.

In Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Mississippi, much of the cotton crop has gone to waste for want of pickers; but it is believed, nevertheless, that an average crop will be harvested. Bills were received here Saturday evening for fifty car loads just shipped from Columbus, Mississippi, which will go East via the Cairo and Vincennes railroad. In anticipation of an increased business in the movement of cotton, the C. & V. railroad company have greatly enlarged their facilities for transportation.

The report current yesterday evening to the effect that the dead body of a negro woman (who had not been seen for a week or more) was found in the old Baumgard building, at the corner of Seventeenth and Poplar, was not warranted by the facts in the case. Kate Stokes, a colored widow woman, died there during the day; but had been sick two or three weeks, and, at the time of her death, was under the treatment of a physician. Furthermore, the building, instead of being vacant, is occupied by two or three families.

The Rice Extravaganza Combination will hold forth in Cairo on Saturday evening next, in their Spectacular Extravaganza Bouffe, "Evangelina," for one night only. No troupe traveling ever won so rapidly and wonderfully upon popular favor. Crowded houses greet their entertainments everywhere; and in truth no one can witness them without feeling the better and happier for it. It has been justly said of the entertainment that the music, always pleasing and vivacious and at times really beautiful and captivating, relieves the prodigality of nonsense, and the nonsense relieves the profane and bewildering situations; and everybody is amused and goes away with half a dozen pretty airs humming in his head to be whistled on the morrow.

It is not for the want of kindly feeling toward the lamented Dr. Waldo, Phil Howard, Henry Wilcox and other victims of the yellow fever, that we do not bestow upon them the attention of deserved obituaries; but for the reason discrimination might give offense, and for the further reason that, for the sake of our readers we desire, as soon as may be, to dismiss the sorrow-giving topic from our columns. With our citizens who knew them, and relatives who loved them, memory will serve as a more enduring repository than the perishable columns of a newspaper, and in that repository we feel constrained to leave the store of cherished recollections that so intensify our sorrows over their loss. "After life's fitful fever they sleep well"—in life they were respected, in death they are lamented.

There is a continual stream of tramps pouring into the South, the attraction being the warmer climate of that region, and the absence of any necessity for overcoats or heavier clothing. About one hundred of these creatures congregated at Fulton, Kentucky, a few days ago, and attempted to capture a southern bound passenger train on the New Orleans & Chicago railroad. But for the interference of the citizens of Fulton, who rallied to the assistance of the railroad men, the vagabonds would have effected the capture. A few pistol shots and well directed blows from bludgeons, in connection with the determined aspect and increasing numbers of the citizens, dispersed the ruffians, and secured the passage of the train without further hindrance. Warm work was threatened for a few moments, and we do not know but that the scalping of a few scores of the lazy rascals would have been an act in the interest of peace and humanity in the long run.

THE DEMOCRATIC RALLY LAST NIGHT.

A BIG CROWD AND PLINY OF ENTHUSIASM.

The Democratic rally at the Athenaeum last night, was an earnest of the fact that the Democrats of Cairo intend to perform their whole duty to their party at the election to-day.

Immense bonfires and music from the Delta band gave ample notice of the place of meeting, and by half-past seven o'clock no less than five hundred voters had assembled in front of the Athenaeum.

At the appointed time Judge Allen was introduced to the crowd by Hon. Thomas Wilson. The applause that followed very plainly showed that Cairo Democrats are in "solid earnest" in their advocacy of the claims of "Josh Allen."

Of the speech that followed we can only speak in terms of praise. It was an open, able and honest presentation of the claims of the Democratic party and of the shortcomings and pernicious legislation of the party in power. Unsmirched by personalities, and couched in plain but forcible language, it stirred up the Democratic portion of the audience to enthusiasm, without giving offense to members of the other parties present. We need not say it was listened to with profound attention, and frequently punctuated with rounds of applause. As the Judge was compelled to leave by the 9:45 train he had to regulate his speech accordingly. The impression left upon the audience was excellent, and will not fail to have its effects upon the vote that will be polled in this city to-day.

Col. E. B. Watkins, of Mount City, was present, and was posted for a speech. Going to press at ten o'clock we could not remain to hear him. We can say, however, that he has been doing veteran work during the campaign, and is regarded as one of the most effective stumpers who has shared in the campaign.

Upon the whole, the meeting was a "good final rally," and an admirable ending of an admirably conducted campaign.

THE NEW PRECINCTS AND WHERE TO VOTE.

Voters to-day will be governed by the newly established precinct lines, which are as follows:

The first Cairo precinct embraces all that portion of the city lying below the center line of Seventh street. Place of voting: Athenaeum building.

Second Cairo precinct embraces that part of the city lying between the center lines of Seventh and Eleventh streets. Place of voting: Rough and Ready Engine House.

Third Cairo precinct embraces that portion of the city lying between the center lines of Eleventh and Sixteenth streets. Place of voting: Hibernian Engine House.

Fourth Cairo precinct lies between the center lines of Sixteenth and Twenty Second streets. Place of voting: the Court House.

Fifth Cairo precinct embraces all the territory included in the balance of the township. Place of voting: the store house of James Carroll.
